TRUE SOCIALISM.

There is such a vast difference between Walkerism, McNamaraism, Anarchy, and REAL Socialism, that we feel called upon, in behalf of the public, to publish the true principles of Socialism in a "nutshell." Here it is:

(BY JOHN SPARGO.)

Socialism and Equality: No Socialist wants to pull down the strong to the level of the weak, the wise to the level of the less wise. Socialism does not imply pulling anybody down. It does not imply a great plain of humanity with no mountain peaks of genius or character. It is not opposed to natural inequalities, but only to man-made inequalities. Its only protest is against these artificial inequalities, products of man's ignorance and greed. It does not aim to pull down the highest, but to lift up the lowest; it does not want to put a load of disadvantage upon the strong and gifted, but it wants to take off the heavy burdens of disadvantage which keep others from rising. In a word, Socialism implies nothing more than giving every child born into the world equal opportunities, so that only the inequalities of nature remain.

The trouble with the Socialist party is the gang of anarchists and cut-throats—the refuse and off-fallings from other parties, agitators, disturbers and strife-breeders, who have forced themselves into the Socialist ranks, for the purpose of deceiving, misleading and betraying the people for selfish purposes. The Socialist party is doing everything it can to purge itself of this element, and this is why Old Chameleon is down here trying to palm himself off on the Democratic party—the Socialist party got wise to his game, kicked him out of the party and black-listed him. The above being the real, the true and the fundamental principles of Socialism, and Chameleon being out for revenue only, it is easy to see why he was discarded and why he is now trying with the Democratic party, the party he betrayed in New Madrid county.

WASTED LIVES.

A few days ago we received a very nice letter from Oscar Bridges, who is serving a life term in the penitentiary for a small burglary committed in Caruthersville a few months ago. He was tried under the habitual criminal act, when, in fact, the man is not a criminal, but a victim of "dope." In his letter to us he did not refer to his case, and his language led us to believe that his mind has cleared up. This young man possesses a good education, is bright and intelligent, and is capable to fill any position, and it is a pity that his life must be wasted. As yet, however, the criminal laws of the world are in the barbaric state, and it will be many years before science will take hold of the law and place it on a higher plane and the thousands who are today branded criminals will be looked upon as the victims of some terrible disease. We cannot get away from the fact that crime is a disease, an affliction, a defect. It is impossible to conceive of a normal man, possessing a healthy mind, being a criminal. Such would be against the laws of nature. Then, of course, crime can be caused by association, environment and unnatural habits. Therefore, instead of destroying the life of the unfortunate victim as the world has been doing through all the ages of the past, for we have need of them in honorable pursuits, science must find a remedy—a cure—and our energies must be utilized in restoring, instead of destroying them.

SEEN' THINGS.

Last Thursday night about 9:30 o'clock a terrible shooting took place up in the neighborhood of Old Chameleon's, and the heavy cannonading not only stirred a furor of excitement throughout that part of town but a ripple spread over the entire city. It seems that Old Chameleon had thrown another fit, had seen a few more visions, or that the spooks were after him. This time no gentle hand beckoned him to a better life—not on your tintype, Sally Ann—they were after his goat, his scalp, his hide, or something of that kind, and, to show the people of Hayti that he had a gun and that he would shoot, he swiped out his automatic and made the air rain with steel balls. When the neighbors gathered in, his hair was standing up like the bristles on a hog's spine, and he had a terrible story to tell—some one trying to break into his house or some enemy prowling around for an evil purpose. And this at an early hour of night, under the full glare of the electric lights and in a thickly settled part of the city!

DEAR FRIEND.

Do not hunt the editor. With pistol or with gun. Thinking he will take it back. Or that you'll make him run; Let me this little secret To your earnest thought confide: His muscles are developed And the Lord is on his side.

There seems to be some discussion and much difference of opinion at Caruthersville over the selection of a site for the new post office building. It appears that an effort is being made to select a site some distance from the business part of town, and while that city may have free mail delivery by the time the new post office is opened, it must be remembered that there is a great deal of business other than the mere delivery of the mail to be transacted at a post office. It seems foolish to talk about getting further away from the river. When the present site, if it ever does, becomes in danger of caving in the Mississippi river, the people of Caruthersville will be more concerned in getting away from there than they are about boosting property values in some certain section of town.

If you are afraid of getting shot, don't go into the army. If you are afraid of getting hit, don't throw stones. It would be nice to have everything your own way, but this is a big world, and there is plenty of room for differences. Many people discover, when it is too late for their own comfort, that there are two sides to almost everything, and that one side or the other may turn out to be entirely different to what you expected. Only a fool will think or attempt to have everything his own way, and only a fool will display himself before the public as wiser and better than his fellow man. A great many years ago we learned to give the other fellow's side of a question closer scrutiny than our own, and to search for the truth and stand by it. No matter how hard the truth is combated, it will stand, and its adversary will sooner or later go down before it.

We notice that nearly every incorporated town in the state of Missouri, as well as in many other states, has a dog tax law, and that the law is enforced. Hayti has such a law, and there was a time in the past when it was enforced. Our city is simply running over with worthless curs, which, besides being worthless, are actually dangerous. Automobiles and motorcycles pay a license, yet these worthless curs can prowl the streets and scatter their fleas to their heart's content and go free.

Lost—Black pocket book, stamped compliments of Scott & Morgan, containing $26.00 in money, in two tens, one five and one one dollar bill, and one note for $20.00 and one for $150.00, payable to E. F. Foster. Finder return to E. F. Foster, at the Davis & Foster pool room, Hayti, and receive reward.

Order of Publication.

STATE OF MISSOURI,
County of Pemiscot ss.
In the Circuit Court, July term, 1914.
Mable Hendrix, Plaintiff,
vs.
John Hendrix, Defendant.

Now at this day comes the plaintiff herein, by her attorneys Duncan & McCarty, and files her petition and affidavit, alleging, among other things, that defendant, John Hendrix, is not a resident of the State of Missouri, so that the ordinary process of law can not be served upon him within this state.

Whereupon, it is ordered by the clerk that said defendant be notified by publication that plaintiff has commenced a suit against him in this court, the object and general nature of which is to dissolve the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted between plaintiff and said defendant, on the grounds of general indignities and unless the said John Hendrix be and appear at this court, at the next term thereof, to be begun and holden at the courthouse in the City of Caruthersville, in said county, on the third Monday of July next, and on or before the first day of said next term, unless further time be granted by the court, answer or demur to said petition in said cause, the same will be taken as confessed, and judgment will be rendered accordingly.

And it is further ordered, that a copy hereof be published, according to law, in the Hayti Herald, a newspaper published in said County of Pemiscot, for four weeks successively, published at least once a week, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the first day of said next July term of this court.

E. S. HUFFMAN, Circuit Clerk.
A true copy from the record.
Witness my hand, and seal of the Circuit Court of Pemiscot county, [seal] this 25th day of April, 1914.

Blood Was Wrong

All women, who suffer from the aches and pains, due to female ailments, are urged to try Cardui, the reliable, scientific, tonic remedy, for women. Cardui acts promptly, yet gently, and without bad effects, on the womanly system, relieving pain, building up strength, regulating the system, and toning up the nerves. During the past half century, thousands of ladies have written to tell of the quick-curative results they obtained, from the use of this well-known medicine.

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Jane Calahan suffered from womanly trouble for nearly ten years. In a letter from Whiteville, N. C., she says: "I was not able to do my own housework. My stomach was weak, and my blood was wrong. I had backache, and was very weak. I tried several doctors, but they did me no good. I used Cardui for 3 or 4 months, and now I am in the best health I have ever been. I can never praise Cardui enough." It is the best tonic, for women.

Whether seriously sick, or simply weak, try Cardui.
